LOUISVILLE RACING POOR

Low Class Horses and a Dead Track Are Factors.

Jockey Kennedy the Riding Star of the Day, With Four Winning Mounts.

(BY J. L. DEMPSEY.)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 1.—Today's card was typically of the off-day variety, six of the races having claiming clauses and bringing out a mediocre brand of starters. The only dash not having selling conditions was the fourth, a three-quarters dash, and bringing to the post seven fillies of the fairly speedy order.

It resulted in a victory for the favorite, Dorothy Buckner, under B. Kennedy's guidance. There was never a question of her superiority after the field had reached the stretch turn, for at this point she came away on call to win by five lengths from Margaret Winsor, with Georgette in third place. The latter fell back soon after the start, with the result that she was far away for the first three-eighths and had to come around the others in the stretch, but finished fast and gamely.

Another victory was recorded to the account of Frank J. Kelley, the Chicago sportsman whose colors have been conspicuous at this meeting. On this occasion his promising racing prospect, Skeezix, was the factor and he showed a right good performance in leading for nearly the entire race and beating five other youngsters home which tried conclusions with him in the five-eighths dash. Kennedy rode him hard in the early racing to keep him in contention, but he steadily forged into the lead and finally drew far away and won eased up. Kent L., which had been badly outrun for the first quarter, came with a rush and outstayed Jupiter in the last few strides for second place.

PARIS MAID PROVIDES UPSET.

The mile and a quarter dash furnished an upset in the victory of Paris Maid, which, racing in her best form and aided by a good ride from the promising W. Pool, won easily from Honolulu Boy and Legal. The latter was the favored one, but his chances were materially lessened by the weak riding he received. Honolulu Boy might have given the winner a strong argument, but, when going best, he ran into a pocket in the stretch and, before he could get clear, Paris Maid had the race clinched.

Threatening weather did not materially affect the attendance today and another generous patronage enjoyed some interesting racing, despite the ordinary offering. There was a noticeable slump in the betting, on account of the poor card. The track appeared dull despite the bone-dry surface.

The introductory scramble furnished an upset in the success of Blaise, which, coming from far back, outstayed the uncertain Hereafter. The finish here was a rousing one, with the first six in a huddled group. The time of the race, 1:14⅘, was the slowest over a fast track run here this spring.

SANDS OF PLEASURE IN FRONT.

Jockey B. Kennedy, under contract to F. J. Kelley, enjoyed a field day and furnished the outstanding incident in connection with the racing, for he piloted four of the afternoon's winners, a feat that has not been duplicated this year in Kentucky. He might have made it five winning mounts for the afternoon but for interference he suffered from on Honolulu Boy, which probably deprived him of success. He inaugurated his successes astride his contract employer's colt Skeezix, was beaten in the succeeding race on Honolulu Boy and then won in succession on Dorothy Buckner, Harry B. and Sands of Pleasure. The latter was in with some good platers at a mile and he showed a dash of his old-time form in coming with a great rush in the stretch after making a slow beginning to win in the last seventy yards from Tomahoi and Brotherly Love. Clintonville was the favored one here, but her showing was a decidedly poor one and she ceased to be prominent after going three-quarters.

The closing race brought to the barrier another band of ordinary ones, with Black Thong, a winner of his last race at long odds, coming in for a good deal of attention, despite the presence of Bruening in the saddle. The victor turned up in Cheer Leader, on which W. Pool rode like a veteran. Sun God landed second place, with Black Thong just managing to get up for third money.

Before departure last night for Chicago, Jefferson Livingston concluded arrangements for the transfer to his stable of the fillies Martha Fallon, Sympathy and Tempting on

ANOTHER FOR MAINMAST

E. F. Whitney's Superman Colt Scores His Fourth Straight Victory at Connaught Park.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 1.—Edward F. Whitney's Mainmast, the chestnut four-year-old son of Superman—Masthead, scored an impressive victory in the Whirlaway Handicap, which featured the card at Connaught Park this afternoon. Lion d'Or took second place, while the Seagram starter Redstone was third. Mainmast continued his triumphs which began at Havre de Grace, and today's success was his fourth consecutive one. In winning today's race he was forced to undergo a hard drive, but established a new track record for the three-quarters distance of 1:12⅗.

A field of four faced the starter, with Lion d'Or the popular choice. From a good start Lion d'Or went to the front with a rush and set a fast pace for the others to follow. Mainmast raced in second position, with Redstone third, while Keltie, the remaining starter, was some distance back. The Ross sprinter was still holding a brief advantage, while Mainmast was under pressure entering the stretch, and Redstone began to drop back. In a grueling finish Mainmast got up in the final strides to win by a short head. The victory was a popular one with Ottawa's crowd.

The old track record of three-quarters, held jointly by Pan Zareta and Sailing B., was 1:13, and was bettered by two-fifths of a second. Mainmast was second choice in the mutuels and netted a good sized dividend for the usual investment.

Rain which visited this locality last evening worked wonders with the going and today's track was the best of the meeting. The card, which was made up of small fields, engaged well-matched fields and spirited racing prevailed.

Trainer W. A. Burttschell was much in the limelight and saddled two winners during the afternoon—Meuse and Titania. The former just lasted to nose out Reluctant, while Titania was winner of the three-quarters dash calling for maiden jockeys, in which J. Peychurd graduated from the maiden ranks when he was home first by a short neck in front of the fast-closing Titania. The latter dominated the running throughout.

Jockey Gantner departed for New York this evening, but will return to Blue Bonnets to ride for the Brookdale Stable.

George Choos' filly Sophia Goldman developed an attack of illness this morning and was excused from starting in the second race.

On the conclusion of this meeting the paddock will be remodeled. The stalls will be placed in the center, with the promenade ring on the outside of the stalls. This improvement will add much to the convenience of the plant.

CANADA'S STRINGENT RULES

Severe Penalties Prescribed in Latest Canadian Racing Associations Regulations.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 1.—The following rules, which were passed by the Canadian Racing Associations at a recent meeting held at Toronto, was posted in the secretary's office at Connaught Park today:

"All persons not in good standing on the turf are prohibited from entering on the premises of any jockey club or racing association at any time. All such persons found hereon on violation of this notice will be dealt with by law as trespassers. Persons enjoying the privileges of this property are warned against employing or harboring persons in bad standing on the turf under penalty of the extension of the same disqualification to themselves and their horses.

"Any owner or trainer having in his stable or in any way under his control or authority a horse that is not authentically registered or that is not as represented in the track registration lists may be suspended and all entries from his stable refused.

"Every entry in a race must be in the name of the person having ownership in the horse and the full names of all persons having any ownership or interest in the horse or any interest in its winnings (excepting a trainer's percentage of winnings) shall be registered according to the regulations of the Canadian Racing Associations prior to its starting. In default of such registration a horse whose ownership is not entered disclosed in the name in which he runs may be disqualified and the person responsible for such failure to completely and correctly register may be suspended or disqualified.

"Responsibility in the matter of establishing either the identity of a horse or his complete and actual ownership shall be as binding on the persons so identifying or undertaking to establish as it is on the persons having the horse whose identity or ownership is in question and the same penalty shall apply to them in case of fraud or attempt at fraud."

READY AT FAIR LATONIA

Prospects Never Brighter for a Wonderful Racing Meeting—Seating Capacity Enlarged.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 1.—Fair Latonia is virtually ready for next Tuesday's opening of what holds out every promise of being the most brilliant season of summer racing in the forty years' history of the track so picturesquely located amid the hills of Kentucky just across the Ohio River from this city.

Track superintendent Charles Nolte has been faithfully carrying into effect the ideas of general manager Matt J. Winn for the further embellishment of the plant, and it will present an inviting appearance indeed when the gates are thrown open to the public on Tuesday for the inauguration of the meeting of twenty-nine days of the finest brand of racing that it is possible to provide with the lure of rich stakes and valuable overnight purses to bring into frequent action the many high-class horses with which the stables at Latonia will be filled by the time opening day arrives.

One of the notable improvements undertaken and completed this spring is the new "baby grand" stand constructed of steel, which is located just east of the paddock. This building will seat 1,000 persons and will prove to be a most popular place.

All of the important racing establishments whose horses have been racing in Kentucky this spring will be transferred en masse to Latonia upon the close of the Churchill Downs meeting on Saturday next, and in addition some stables that have not figured in the meetings at Lexington and Louisville will make their debut for the year at the Kenton County track.

The problem of providing stabling accommodation for all the horsemen who are desirous of taking part in the Latonia meeting became so acute that general manager Winn was forced to the necessity of restricting stall reservations to horses actually ready to race, but the demands this year are extraordinary and furnish one of several equally good reasons for the general belief that Latonia will be the scene of the most remarkable race meeting in all the long and illustrious history of the Kentucky turf. With an abundance of good horses fit and ready to fill the tempting races with which the program book is so well supplied it is indeed a pleasing prospect that the patrons of racing at Latonia are facing.

BE FRANK GOING TO CANADA

MONTREAL, Que., June 1.—Word has come from Harry Unna, trainer of the stable of George W. Fuller of California, which is training at Aqueduct track, that Be Frank will ship to Blue Bonnets next week to prepare for a race on June 15 in the Windsor Hotel Cup, the Montreal Jockey Club's $5,000 race of one mile and an eighth for three-year-olds and over, which will be the getaway day feature of the Blue Bonnets June meeting. Be Frank will be accompanied from New York by Sunnyland, a top-notch selling plater, which, also, may start in the Windsor Hotel Cup. Be Frank and Sunnyland both raced at Jamaica after a let-up of three weeks which followed their arrival in the East from Tijuana, where they campaigned through the winter, Be Frank with marked success.

STARS IN FORT ERIE RACE

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 1.—According to entry returns for the Niagara Racing Association stake races many prominent horses have been named for the Dominion Handicap to be run at Fort Erie. Among them are Snob II., Mad Hatter, Exterminator, Gray Lag, Boniface, Golden Sphere, Firebrand, Two Feathers, Registrar, Bulldog Drummond and a host of others.

BLACK SERVANT NOT TO RACE THIS YEAR

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 1.—Black Servant will not be a starter this year, according to trainer "Dick" Thompson, in charge of E. R. Bradley's horses. He will be sent some time next week to Idle Hour Farm to be rested for at least this year. His enforced idleness is due to a filled leg that will not not stand the grueling strain of hard training. Busy American is also still here, suffering, in addition to his bowed tendon, from a mild attack of influenza. He will accompany Black Servant to Idle Hour Farm next week.

OLD BELLE OF BRYN MAWR

Former Stud Matron Wins the International Steeplechase.

Emotion Saves the Day for R. L. Gerry Stable When Bee's Wax Fails.

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 1.—Belle of Bryn Mawr, the twelve-year-old mare, which has a two-year-old racing, was the winner of the International Steeplechase Handicap at Belmont Park today and when she set the pace from the first jump to the finish of the two-mile course she equaled the track record, hanging out 3:47⅘. Her only other race since being sent to the stud was in the Charles L. Appleton Memorial, in which she gave an excellent account of herself, though palpably short.

This performanec of the sturdy old daughter of Ort Wells and Belle of Mayfair made the cross-country race easily the feature of the program and her victory was a decidedly popular one.

The skies were overcast and there were occasional sprinkles of rain during the afternoon. A chill in the air did not add to the comfort for out-of-door sport and the attendance was the smallest since the opening of the meeting, although there was a good crowd on hand.

Seven went to the post for the International and it really proved a good race. Roi Craig, from the Greentree Stable, was scratched, but Soumangha was added to bear Kingdom II. company. The other withdrawal from the overnight list was Sea Skipper, but Joyful was left to carry the silks of Joseph E. Widener. Others in the field were J. S. Cosden's Bullseye, Mrs. F. Ambrose Clark's The Trout and Joseph E. Davies' Quecreek.

OLD MARE JUMPS FAULTLESSLY.

From a good start Sims went right out with the old black mare and raced along at a killing pace from the first jump, saving ground all the way and jumping faultlessly. The Trout ran second and Joyful, Quecreek and Bullseye followed in order, with the Greentree Stable pair bringing up the rear. Through the field Belle of Bryn Mawr, under slight restraint, held to her lead and was jumping better than anything else in the field. At the lower end of the field there was some closing up back of the mare and when the run through the back field was reached there was a general move to cut down her lead, but Sims anticipated just such a move and shaking up his mount she held her advantage.

Right at the end she was swerving out and tiring, but she lasted under an energetic ride to be the winner, while Bullseye readily saved second place from Quecreek.

The race was worth $2,600 to the Canterbury Farm and the condition in which Jim Healy has the old mare now she should win another purse before the end of the steeplechase year.

George Odom started both Emotion and Bee's Wax from the Robert L. Gerry stable in the three-quarters dash for three-year-old fillies and he declared to win with Bee's Wax That was the intention, but Sande had to come along with Emotion to save the day when he found Bee's Wax was not equal to the task. Emotion was an easy winner and Sherando, from the Oak Ridge Stable, just lasted to save second place from the Greentree Stable's King's Fancy. Bee's Wax was fourth and P. A. Clark's Blue Tea was the only other starter.

DUCKS AND DRAKES WINNER.

Maiden two-year-olds of the selling plater variety met in a four and a half furlong dash through the straight as the opening race of the day. Richard T. Wilson furnished the winner in Ducks and Drakes, a gelded son of Thistleton and The Loon. J. L. Holland's Golden Fork, one that was raced at New Orleans, ran second, while third was the portion of the Syndicate Stable's Scare-Crow.

Golden Fork left the barrier quickly and was the one to cut out most of the pace, but she was tiring badly at the end. Ducks and Drakes ran straight and Scare Crow met with some interference when carried to the inside rail in the final eighth. Soldier II., another starter, swerved to the outside and he held his position out there all the way. Right at the end Jennie C. came with a great rush and she was lapped on Scare Crow. Ducks and Drakes was doing his best to win and Golden Fork just lasted to be second.

Gifford A. Cochran's Bersagliere was an easy winner of the mile that was the fourth offering. At the end he was four lengths clear of Fred Burlew's Irish Brigadier and Bud Fisher's Violinist was the one to finish third. The only other starters were The

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

Insurance—John A. Payne, General Agent, Cincinnati.—Adv.

The speedy Champlain, owned by G. W. J. Bissell of Pittsburgh, will be raced at Blue Bonnets at the conclusion of the Thorncliffe meeting.

After all improvements have been completed H. P. Whitney will have one of the most beautiful as well as the best-appointed breeding farms in Kentucky.

David Englander, the American rider in France, threatens to quit his stable and give the American turf another example of his mediocrity in the saddle. He is a failure in French action.

The Berlin Grand Prize, to be run this summer, will be worth from 200,000 to 225,000 marks. Impressive figures for quick glance or speech, but some $770 in real honest to Jehovah money.

Stacy Adams, which was well thought of as a two-year-old, will make his three-year-old debut at Blue Bonnets, it is said. He was gelded last autumn and rested up at New Orleans during the winter.

When John Wells, the jockey, steered Blue Gown to victory in the Derby, Sir Joseph Hawley, the owner, handed him the entire stakes of nearly $30,000. "Who would be prime minister after this?" Wells is said to have exclaimed.

"SILKS AND SATINS"

A CHAPTER ON JOCKEYS --- LORD WHARTON'S FANTASY---THE OLD SCHOOL AND THE NEW --- FAMOUS FINISHES

(BY W. S. VOSBURGH.)

"Go on, brave youths, till at some future age,
Whips shall become the senatorial badge;
Till England see her jockey senators,
Meet all at Westminster in boots and spurs;
See the whole House with mutual frenzy mad,
Her patriots all, in leathern breeches clad,
Of bets, not taxes, learnedly debate;
And guide with equal reins, a steed or State."
—Wharton's Newmarket.

It is more than two hundred years since Thomas, Lord Wharton, penned the above amusing conceit in, no doubt, a spirit of pleasantry as became his versatility, for, besides being one of the greatest statesmen of his time, he was likewise poet, satirist, profligate and leader of the English turf. The idea of a jockey as a legislator is pleasantly whimsical. It is true legislators often pass bills with "a rider" on them, and that each party has a "whip"; also that a jockey, by hard riding, often "seconds the motion" of his horse, but certainly no jockey has yet appeared to realize Lord Wharton's fantasy.

But in their own sphere jockeys have often risen to great heights, as we reflect when we recall some brilliant efforts of "the boys in boots and breeches." Bill Hayward taking a pull on Preakness "to let him catch his breath," and coming again to make a dead heat with Springbok for the Saratoga Cup. Frank O'Neil, cunningly waiting with the sluggish Irish Lad and winning the Brooklyn Handicap after a vigorous set-to—the only way to ride him. Clarence Turner's terrific finish on Star Charter for the Toronto Cup, beating Olambala. Schuttinger, on Exterminator, making every post a winning one and just beating Purchase for the Cup at Saratoga. Joe Notter nursing the fast-tiring Colin for the Belmont and just landing the race with a colt ready to sink. Ed Garrison coming like a cyclone with Montana for the Surburban and making "a Garrison finish" a proverb. Earl Sande biding his time with Cudgel for the Merchants' at Saratoga and racing his field down as if they were hacks; or, a year later for the same race, just squeezing a head out of Sir Barton against Gnome when nine people out of ten thought it a dead heat. Willie Knapp "skinning the rails" and coming on the inside of Regret, landing old Borrow a winner in the Brooklyn Handicap in the last stride. All these were masterpieces of a profession which a multitude admire and in which so few excel.

As between the old school of jockeys and the present there is an important difference. A majority of the old school were men; a majority of the present day are boys. The old school had some jockeys who were fine judges of pace. The present day jockey is seldom a judge of pace. He doesn't need to be, for the races are not over sufficient distance to require knowledge of pace in nursing a horse for his final effort. Races nowadays are run with a strong pace from the start and the main object is to get away in front and obtain a good position and then ride as hard as you can. This is carried to such excess that the young jockeys often get a horse away without regard as to whether he gets off on his right leg or not. The consequence is, particularly if there is a very fast pacemaker, that his horse never gets into his stride. Still, the jockeys of today obtain a vastly greater amount of practice than did those of the old school.

FINE HORSEMANSHIP OF SANDE AND KEOGH.

One of the finest exhibitions of riding last season was at Saratoga when Sande, on Thunderclap, defeated Keogh, on Knot. Thunderclap led all the way, but Knot hung on and the horses ran the last half mile head and head and stride for stride. Thunderclap had 135 pounds up and Knot twenty-four pounds less, but the exertions of these two admirable horsemen was worth the journey to Saratoga to see and to properly describe, which the pen cannot give expression. With so much the worst of weights it proved Sande a great horseman and some of the officials even went to the jockeys' room and congratulated him. Another instance of quick thinking was Fator's ride on Surf Rider when he won the Babylon Handicap at the Aqueduct September meeting. In the stretch he twice tried to come through next the rail. Time was short, as they were less than an eighth from the winning post and, suddenly taking his horse to the outside, Fator sat down and, riding like a fiend possessed, won his race in the last two strides.

Jockeys are slow to lodge a complaint against each other so long as they are on friendly terms and it was to provide for this that in 1892 the present Rule 153 of racing was amended to read: "Nothing in this rule shall prevent the stewards from taking cognizance of foul riding," as prior to that time complaint on the part of owner, trainer or jockey was necessary. At the Jamaica September meeting of 1920, Buxton, on Hendrie, repeatedly bumped C. Kummer's mount, Nightstick, in the race through the stretch. Kummer made no complaint, however. The stweards sent for Kummer and in reply to the question admitted his horse had been bumped badly, otherwise he might have won. Hendrie was, of course, disqualified. Being one of the stewards, I asked Kummer why he failed to lodge a complaint. He replied that he "didn't want to make trouble." I asked him if he knew that failure to report so palpable a case after he had admitted it made him accessory to the act. He replied that he did not know that. Mr. McNaughton, Kummer's employer, however, took the blame upon himself, telling me that he had always instructed the jockey "never to go running to the stewards with complaints."

It is rare that any two spectators of a race see incidents alike. It is rare, too, that jockeys will assume blame for an accident. Toward the close of the Saratoga meeting of 1920 there was a collision between four horses in a race, three of which fell, and every one had a different opinion of the cause. War God closed on War Marvel and fell, and Dunboyne and Pilgrim, coming from behind, fell over War God. War Marvel went on and finished second. Then Rodriguez, the rider of War Marvel, of his own accord, went to the stewards and explained. He said that Robinson, who rode War God, was not responsible, but that his (Rodriguez') own mount, War Marvel, was entirely to blame. He stated that his horse bore to the inside, blocking War God, which struck War Marvel and went down. Of course War Marvel was disqualified, but it was an incident of unusual candor in a jockey.

The career of a jockey in this country is short. Few of those riding ten years ago are riding now. Naturally, increasing weight drives many a fine rider from the saddle; yet many more are driven out of it by scandal. Undoubtedly, the temptations in the life of a jockey are constant, but the followers of racing are much too suspicious and ready to credit scandal. It is rarely a jockey escapes and, once started, it passes from lip to lip until owners become alarmed and refuse to employ him. He may be quite innocent of any of the charges, but he cannot remove the cloud that hangs over him and finally, unable to secure sufficient patronage to enable him to exist, he is compelled to abandon the only employment of which he has any knowledge, seek a position as trainer or turn stable hand and rub horses.

SUCCESS OF "TIPSTERS" A MONUMENT TO HUMAN CREDULITY.

Not infrequently he turns "tout," or, perhaps, a "tipster," and proceeds with pretended "information" to fool the public. President Lincoln is reported to have held that "you can't always fool the public." But that was precisely what Mr. Lincoln was doing when he said so, for what can fool people easier than flattery? Mr. Lincoln was a politician and in a republic a politician lives by flattering the people. Pericles fooled the Athenians, Caesar fooled the Romans. This practice in a republic does not change its essence by a transfer from a popular to an absolute form of government. The flatterer of the people merely puts on a laced coat and pays his court to a monarch. The "tipster" is a monument to human credulity. If his "information" was worth anything, is it likely that he would sell it for a pittance when by backing it himself he could win heavily? Taken altogether, the passing of a jockey is not a pleasant subject and a great deal could be said about it that is better left unsaid.

Frank Robinson, the jockey who lost his life in an accident at Bowie in 1919, bid fair to be, if he not already was, the best of all recent jockeys. There was nothing temperamental about him. He was always the same cool, precise young man, yet very keenly alive to surrounding conditions. Seldom was any complaint heard of his riding foul or of disobeying orders. He was self-contained but always polite; an excellent judge of pace and patient with a nervous horse. James Rowe, trainer of the Whitney stable, told me he considered the death of Robinson one of racing's greatest losses. "I have had many jockeys," said Rowe, "but I never had one who was as good a rider and yet so unspoiled by his success. He was the easiest boy to get along with I ever knew. He knew what he was about and when he rode for you you knew if your horse was beaten it was no fault of the jockey."

It would develop jockeys if the racing associations would offer more races for apprentices or "jockeys who had never ridden a winner." Of course, betting men are utterly opposed to them, but certainly they could strain a point in the interest of racing. Such races afford the only chance to develop any number of riders. Trainers will not put novices up against experienced jockeys, and unless a boy has a rich stable that will give him a chance he is compelled to go to winter tracks and proprietary meetings in the "bush" to develop. There he is apt to make bad connections and becomes spoiled. The late Mr. John A. Morris made a feature of these races at Morris Park and Mr. Butler seems disposed to encourage them at Yonkers.

Last season Hymen waved his torch busily among the jockeys. Sande, Kummer and Clifford Robinson each essayed to and fly into the arms of matrimony. Or, in the words of the sagacious Lord Verulam, they have had "given hostages to fortune and assumed impediments to great enterprises whether of virtue or of mischief." Among trainers there is a certain degree of prejudice against a married jockey. They say that no matter how courageous he was before, he "takes no chances after;" that he "loses his nerve" and "will not go through a field" with his old-time dash. They even cite instances to confirm their belief. It is easy to understand that a married man feels a greater sense of responsibility for his physical welfare than does a single one. His wife naturally reminds him of dangers to which he formerly was indifferent. This may cause him to be more careful. But for this he should not be reproached, as in his care to avoid accident he protects the other jockeys when he protects himself. Most accidents are caused by the reckless youngsters, who know no fear until an accident puts fear into them.

TWO-YEAR-OLD SUPREMACY

Greatest of Young Thoroughbreds in American Turf Annals.

From Sensation 1879, to Morvich and Miss Joy, 1921—Superiority a Question.

(BY SALVATOR.)

Not long ago there appeared in Daily Racing Form an interesting table of "Unbeaten Two-Year-Olds," comprising a list of seven which, since 1906, had gone through their campaigns undefeated. It began with Colin, winner in 1907 of twelve straight races and $131,007, and ended with Morvich, winner in 1921 of eleven straight races and $115,234. Can, however, one claim much, on the undefeated basis, for colts or fillies that only start two or three times in a season? One suspects not. Of the seven two-year-olds listed, three, or nearly 50 per cent, cannot be considered really to have withstood the acid test. Regret and Thunderer raced but three times, and Hwfa only twice. Their performances, to be sure, may have been brilliant, as far as they went. But they did not go far.

The test of an unbeaten racer is the ability to live other than a band-box life and to have met all comers on more than two or three specially selected occasions. Of the seven two-year-olds under discussion only three were "sweated for the brass" on any other system. These were Colin and Morvich, which, as stated, raced twelve and eleven times, respectively, and Tryster, which six times ran and won. The remaining member, Leonardo II., is on the borderland, having raced four times.

Our first great unbeaten two-year-old was Sensation, the son of Leamington, and brother of Onondaga and Stratford. This superb colt in 1879 started in and won eight straight races, his earnings reaching the sum of $19,670; this being the first time in the history of the American turf that a performer of that age won $10,000 or more—Duke of Magenta had just failed of it in 1877 when he won $9,987. We had had some sparkling two-year-olds previous to Sensation, but he was that first impressively demonstrated the possibilities of the age, and with him the "day of the two-year-old" in America may be said really to have dawned.

UNBEATEN ONES OF 27 YEARS.

Between 1879, Sensation's year, and 1906, that with which the table taken as my text takes up the narrative, we had several unbeaten two-year-olds, of which three, to my mind, outclass any other trio that can be named. These are, or were: Tremont, winner of thirteen straight races in 1886; El Rio Rey, winner of seven straight races in 1889, and Domino, winner of nine straight races in 1893. Here was a trio of pure marvels, whose like has not since been seen.

As the two-year-old has become a cult and monopolizes attention to a degree which has never been accorded any other age, perhaps I will not be out of order if I offer what I may term my own private gallery of two-year-olds, comprising those which, according to my judgment, are the best America has seen from the day of Sensation to the present. I have arranged them according to their order of appearane, not that of the number of races or the amount of money won. So here they are:

SUPREME GREATNESS MERE NOTION.

Picking great, of the greatest, race horses of various classes, is like arranging anthologies of favorite songs or stories. There is always abundant reason for disagreement between the picker and the reader, who, glancing down the lists, finds conspicuously absent horses which to him were idols, types of supreme excellence; while, on the other hand, he is apt to find included others which, to his way of thinking, have no right to be there. It will be this way, I have no doubt, with my roster of two-year-olds, which, of course, is a personal selection. However, it represents an earnest attempt to illustrate the two-year-old greatness of the era under consideration.

There are thirty stars in my "gallery," of which twenty-two are colts, six fillies and two geldings. As it originally stood, the list comprehended but twenty-nine. I rounded it out to an even thirty by adding the name of Miss Joy. One must keep pace with the spirit of the times, and, while Miss Joy may not rank with the other five fillies included, namely, Spinaway, Wanda, Hamburg Belle, Artful and Tradition, still the racing public of 1921 assuredly believed so. I give her the benefit of the doubt. Many turfmen will perhaps wonder why Regret does not also appear. But, to tell truth, Regret was the heroine of one of the worst two-year-old seasons of the twentieth century. And, beyond that, she raced but three times.

There have been certain seasons when the two-year-olds were simply dazzling and it was difficult to resist giving a whole group of them places on the list. Take, for instance, 1886, a true "annus mirabilis" in this respect. Among its two-year-olds were two "unbeatens," Tremont and Hanover. Another colt that lost but a single race, and that a false one, King Fox. And, back of this trinity, Kingston, Firenze, Terra Cotta, Lizzie Krepps and half a dozen others, all real stars.

SUPERB THREE OF YEAR 1904.

Again there was 1904, when Artful, Tradition, and Sysonby finished one-two-three in the Futurity. I venture to say that never before nor since did three such high-class performers catch the eye of the judge as they passed the post together in that event. The nearest approaches were the Proctor Knott-Salvator-Galen finish in 1888 and that of Maskette, Sir Martin, and Helmet in 1908. In the case of 1886 I have contented myself with taking Tremont, Hanover and King Fox, omitting Kingston with great reluctance, and as he won but two of his six starts. In that of 1904 I could not see my way clear to omit any of the Futurity trio named, so they all appear. In 1906 there was another glittering galaxy of two-year-olds. I had to take one and leave the others, so I picked Water Pearl, undoubtedly the colt of the year until he went amiss in mid-season, prior to which he had done wonders. That season also brought us such juveniles as Electioneer, Salvidere, Court Dress, Ballot, Peter Pan, De Mund, Oran, Superman, etc., etc.

When the trying tackle is poor, it is difficult to gauge greatness. That was what, as stated, counted Regret regretfully out of it. I did not allow it to weigh in the case of Old Rosebud, which, to be sure, had nothing much to beat, but won his dozen out of foruteen starts in such smashing style that no doubt of his class could remain.

It is difficult not to let the after-careers of two-year-olds influence our judgment of their merits, but I have tried to consider those above as two-year-olds solely. More than a few of them failed to train on, but that cannot properly affect their earlier glory. One of these was Tremont, a colt that deserves, perhaps, to rank as the greatest two-year-old America has seen. He came out in a year gemmed with great ones, but none of them was within many pounds of him. He made everything that started against him look common; even when they left him at the post it made no difference. If Tremont ever had an equal it was, perhaps, El Rio Rey, rather than Sensation, Domino, or Colin. He was quite a different type from Tremont, except in the way in which he could simply smother everything that tried to contend with him. He could (and did) fall to his knees and then get up and go on and run over the others.

GREAT BROTHERS FROM THE WEST.

El Rio Rey and Emperor of Norfolk are the only own brothers in the list, also the only pair of performers out of the same dam. Both were by Norfolk, from Marion, by Malcolm. A volume might be written about the breeding of these thirty two-year-olds, but a few lines must suffice. I have designated all imported animals that appear as sires, dams, or sires of dams, and anylysis shows that as between them and the native-born, the latter have by far the best of it.

There are nine by imported sires, and a tenth—Sysonby—that was himself imported unborn, leaving twenty, or two for one, the get of American-bred sires. On the other side, the maternal, but three out of the thirty are from imported dams, with Sysonby again coming in as imported when his dam, Optime, was carrying him. The sires of dams count as follows: By American sires, twenty; by foreign sires, ten. This, peculiarly, is exactly the same ratio in which the sires of the performers themselves are divided.

I find that Leamington (Sensation and Spinaway), Norfolk (Emperor of Norfolk and El Rio Rey), Hamburg (Hamburg Belle and Artful), and Sweep (Eternal and Leonardo II.), are the only sires with more than one representative. Marion, as aforesaid, is the only double dam. Lexington got the dams of both Sensation and Spinaway, Reform the dams of both Tradition and Requital. No other sire has more than one dam to his credit. It is interesting to note that Reclare, herself a flying filly at two, was not only the dam of Tradition, but the third dam of Eternal, as well.

Greentree Stable's Irish Sea and Richard T. Wilson's Kirklevington

Frank Keogh pursued different tactics with Bersagliere than have been used in his other recent starts. Instead of going out with him he waited and the result should induce waiting with him in the future.

Irish Sea and Kirklevington raced along in front, but Keogh had Bersagliere outside of them and well within striking distance. Butwell was on the inside with Kirklevington and at the three-eighths post he made an effort to come through on the inside. As he did so Lyke shook up Irish Sea and held his lead. But he did not shake off Bersagliere and after rounding the stretch corner Keogh made his first move. Bersagliere came away readily when called on and he was under restraint through the last eighth.

Irish Brigadier had been racing last in the early stages, but the others tired in front of him so that he was along in time to be second while Violinist also beat Irish Sea home and Kirklevington was last of the party.

Eugene Wayland made an auspicious start with the Willis Sharpe Kilmer's string in New York, when he saddled Sweep Hawk in a four and a half furlong dash for two-year-old fillies that was the fifth offering. This big daughter of Sweep and Hawksora was winner from H. Alterman's Ege, while the Greentree Stable's Solisa was a close third.

Ege was the one to set the pace and was still showing the way and going fast a sixteenth from home, while Carroll was driving Sweep Hawk in an effort to catch the leader. Through the last sixteenth Sweep Hawk ran straight and true and under the punishment just got up in the last strides to win by a head.

In the meantime Solisa was also closing fast on the outside and she was beaten only half a length for second place by the tiring Ege.

The start was a good one, but Evelyn Sawyer swerved over toward the outside sharply and collided with Smatter Pop and carried Solisa and Hot Muffin out badly.

Kimball Patterson will ship the B. Harding horses to Montreal for the Blue Bonnets meeting there. Jockey H. Hamilton will go with the stable.

Alfred Johnson was engaged to ride either Miss Joy or Fair Phantom in the Kentucky Oaks, but both fillies have been reported ill and it is doubtful if either is brought to the post.

W. McKnight has been engaged to train the horses of Frederick Johnson that were formerly in the care of Joe Notter.

WISCONSIN'S DERBY CIRCUIT

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., June 1.—Nine of the most successful fairs in the State of Wisconsin formed a Derby circuit, to be known as the Chippewa Valley Derby Circuit, at a meeting held at Eau Clair May 26, and will offer purses aggregating nearly $10,000 for running races.

Hon. Charles A. Ingram, president of the Association of Wisconsin Fairs, was elected president; Dr. G. A. Mills of Wausau, nationally known breeder of Airedale dogs and a running horse enthusiast, was elected vice-president, and Robert B. Clark, formerly secretary of the Northern Wisconsin State Fair, was elected secretary and treasurer.

The associations forming the circuit are Boscobel, August 9 to 11; Viola, August 15 to 18; Wausau, August 22 to 25; Merrill, August 29 to September 1; Marshfield, September 5 to 8; Chippewa Falls, September 11 to 15; Menomonie, September 19 to 22; Durand, September 26 to 29; Mondovi, October 3 to 6.

This is distinctly a new departure in Wisconsin, but the indications are that it will be a very successful venture, as all of the race courses, with the exception of the first two, are located very closely together, so that the shipping expense will be very small.

Each association will put on a Derby and a novelty race, the rest of the program being made up of half mile, four and one-half furlongs, five-eighths and three-quarters mile dashes.

Robert B. Clark, Chippewa Falls, Wis., is looking after the program and stabling accommodations.

EPSOM DERBY SIDELIGHTS

The crowd that witnessed the decision of the "world's most famous race" was estimated at 200,000.

It was said that about half of 20,000 American tourists now in England journeyed to Epsom Downs to see the Derby. Quite a few Chicagoans were among them.

It was the fourth victory for jockey Stephen Donoghue in the big race. His first success was scored in 1915 on Sol Joel's Pommern. In 1917 he won with Mr. Fairie's Gay Crusader and in 1921 he was astride Humorist when that horse carried J. B. Joel's silks to victory.

Five Goliath airplanes, "Derby Specials," carrying from eight to twelve passengers each, mostly Americans, flew from the Le Bourget flying field in France to Croydon, England, whence the passengers proceeded by automobile to Epsom to attend the Derby.

A clerk in a Liverpool insurance office, Miss Gwendolyne Thomas, drew Captain Cuttle, winner of the Derby, in one of the big sweepstakes. She sold a half share in the ticket a few days ago for $15,000, but retained the other half, thus winning about $300,000 additional.

Emperor of Norfolk made the most extensive campaign of any of these thirty two-year-olds, racing eighteen times and winning twelve, and thereafter he trained on to fuller fame. Morello, which raced seventeen times, won fourteen, and he also was a glorious three-year-old. Hamburg won twelve of sixteen starts, Old Rosebud twelve of fourteen, and Colin all twelve of his. Again we must accord the palm, however, to Tremont's thirteen wins in thirteen starts. And, moreover, Tremont went out of commission before the season closed. It is no wonder!

The class of the "gallery" of two-year-olds is disclosed by the fact that they started in 290 races and won 232 of them, which shows that they averaged practically ten starts and won practically eight of them. Their total earnings approach two million dollars—$1,797,180, making their average of money won $59,918.

ENQUIRER STAR ENTRIES

Best Handicap Horses of Country Named for Big Latonia Feature.

The Enquirer Handicap, though one of the new stake attractions at Latonia, has already acquired a prominent place on the Covington track's program and each year finds it growing in popular favor. It was first run in 1918, when Boniface captured it, then followed Courtship, Drastic and Marjorie Hynes in 1919, 1920 and 1921 respectively. For this year's running eighty-one nominations were received and among them are the pick of the handicap division, both East and West, with but few exceptions. No matter what horses make up the field on its day of decision the patrons of the Latonia course are certain to witness a real horse race. The conditions and entries for this popular fixture follow:

ENQUIRER HANDICAP—$5,000 added. For three-year-olds and over. By subscription of $20 each; $100 additional to start; $5,000 added, of which $800 to second, $400 to third, fourth to save stake. CHAMPLAIN ALL THE WAY

Easily Captures Flight Handicap at Thorncliffe Park—Beljoy Breaks Track Record.

TORONTO, Ont., June 1.—G. W. J. Bissell's Champlain never left the result in doubt during the running of the Flight Handicap, the fifth and feature attraction at Thorncliffe Park this afternoon. The Rapid Water colt, an overwhelming favorite, rushed into the lead immediately after the start came and never at any stage gave his backers the slightest cause for worry, Madeline Lillian, always in closest pursiut of the flying leader, beat Ultimata for second place.

The skies were cloudy at times, but the atmosphere was pleasant and the usual mid-weekday crowd turned out to witness the sport.

The Thorncliffe Stable scored its first success at the meeting when Beljoy captured the sixth race, for Canadian-bred horses. Although outpaced by Mallowmot to the stretch Beljoy won easily from Rock Silk at the end and incidentally established a new track record of 1:42⅘ for the mile and twenty yards. Sweet Bouquet and Jim Petrie had little chance with the start.

Calistoga graduated from the ranks of non-winners when she annexed the initial dash rather easily from Brother John. The latter showed in front during the early stages, but Calistoga proved the gamer when the final test came.

After Leading Star had shown the way to the stretch head in the second race Crestwood Boy took command and scored with considerable to spare.

Panaman appeared to have the third race well in hand when Arctic King came again in the last sixteenth to score in a driving finish.

May Maulsby was neevr in trouble at any stage of the fourth.

Although outpaced to the stretch by Dark Hill in the concluding dash Coffield was eventually returned a handy winner. Furbelow refused to line up with her field and wheeled when the start came, which is nothing new for this erratic performer.

R. Pending shipped the jumpers Nonus and Shoal to Blue Bonnets.

Gene Lutz and H. B. Carver arrived this morning from Cleveland with their strings. Lutz also brought along Port Light for E. G. Vivell. Jockey E. T. Moore accompanied Lutz' stable.

A. R. Loudon, secretary of the Hamilton Jockey Club, was a visitor here this afternoon. He reports the erection of fifty new stalls at the Hamilton course. The stabling accommodations now number six hundred stables.

Charles Douglas is a recent arrival at the Hamilton Jockey Club track with three jumpers from Maryland.

Clarence Buxton is expected shortly with fifteen head, and K. Patterson with a string of ten from New York.

B. Chapman, D. Simpson and W. H. Woodall were the principals in an operation at a local hospital here this morning when a transfusion of blood was made for the benefit of Jack Delaney, a Maryland horseman. Delaney was in a critical condition for some time and each of his fellow horsemen contributed a quantity of the precious fluid in an effort to save his life.

W. C. Weant reports the death of Moss Fox, the sire of several of the present members of his string. Moss Fox, although foaled in Canada, was royally bred, being by Red Fox II., a son of Flying Fox. He met with a fair measure of success in the stud.

private terms. The horses will continue in the care of T. L. Pierce, their former trainer.

The epidemic here is still raging and is affecting all the stables. There are thirty-two ailing ones in the Montfort Jones establishment and ten of the twelve horses in charge of John Lowe are also sufferers. The next week will probably witness the force of the epidemic spent, with the horses now ailing beginning to round back into normal temperature.

Track superintendent Charles Nolte of the Latonia track sent the complete list of stable assignments here this morning. One hundred and four owners racing at Churchill Downs have been assigned space. This does not include owners already at the Latonia track, nor eastern owners that have secured stable room.

The stewards made inquiry of jockey Bruening after his faulty ride on Legal, with respect to his riding of the horse. He stated that he was carrying out orders in taking Legal back in the early running.

Cain & Sanford secured Harry B. via the claiming route at a cost of $1,900.

Holly Hughes, trainer of the Sanford stable, has entered the fast colt Serenader in the $50,000 Kentucky Special. Trainer Hughes considers Serenader to be as good as Snob II., which he recently sold for a high price to J. S. Cosden.

PRUDISH STARTER IN OAKS

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 1.—Lawrence Lyke left for Louisville tonight to ride Harry Payne Whitney's Prudish in the running of the Kentucky Oaks Saturday. The filly was fitted at Brookdale Farm and then shipped to Churchill Downs.
